

Y.M.C.A. WALLOPS
WHEELING BADLY

Barley Gives Good Practice to the Fairmont Team.

Outstanding Wheeling Y. M. C. A. Fairmont Y. M. C. A. barely had a good practice game on the local Y. M. C. A. floor on Saturday evening, wallowing the visitors by the score of 44 to 25. The game and general team work of Fairmont was par excellence, while the visitors appeared weak in almost every department.

At times the lack of organization was apparent in the Wheeling line and frequently the players on the visiting line held the ball and did not know where to pass it. On the other hand Fairmont was on the job every minute and the local men played rings around Wheeling.

Stewart was Wheeling's best man and his work aggregated fifteen of Wheeling's twenty-five points, having made four field goals and shot seven out of fifteen fouls.

In the local aggregation Knight led with 24 points. Arnett and Hawkins played a bang-up game and their efforts were noticeable every minute.

Four hundred people witnessed the game. The line up follows:

Fairmont, 44. Position. Wheeling, 25.
Knight.....F..... Noel
Arnett.....F..... Stewart
Meredith.....F..... Compant
Wilson.....G..... Polindexter
Hawkins.....G..... Warfoll
Substitutions—Potter for Meredith; Jackson for Polindexter; Atkins for Compant. Field goals—Fairmont: Knight, 8; Arnett, 5; Hawkins, 5; Wheeling: Noel, 3; Stewart, 4; Compant, 2. Foul goals—Knight, 8 out of 13; Stewart, 7 out of 15. Referee, Clark. Time of halves, 20 minutes.

WASHINGTON NEWS
GOSSIP

By CHARLES BROOKS SMITH.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 12.—"No story that has been told of the brutality and bestiality of the German officers and soldiers has been exaggerated. It is beyond the human imagination to exaggerate the Hun in this war. The half has probably never been told, leastways not in print, for it is unprintable. The danger is that civilians may not be able to believe—I grant you it is no doubt difficult for them—and that a sentiment will form in Allied countries that will make for a peace for the Germans short of the exact justice that their indescribable and unspeakable crimes merit."

So spoke Major John C. Bond, former adjutant general of West Virginia, who has but recently returned from nine months' service with the army in France. He stopped in Washington for a day to visit friends on the West Virginia congressional delegation and at the War Department. He especially wanted to thank his friend, General Harris, for expeditiously discharging him from the army. Major Bond landed in New York Sunday the fifth, applied for his discharge by phone, and having personal friends high in the Adjutant General's Department, secured his discharge at once. Comparatively few returning officers, and even fewer private soldiers, have been so fortunate.

Major Bond was shipped home as a casual. He had been gassed, several times he said, but none of them serious. However, it helped some in enabling him to get detached from his command abroad and secure leave to come home. His military experience ment he was serving as adjutant general of West Virginia, was what enabled him to get home and out of the army in a record-breaking brevity of time.

After three months' training after landing abroad, Major Bond was sent to the front. He went abroad with the First division, but most of his service was with the Thirty-fifth, a brigade adjutant. He was at St. Mihiel, in the Argonne in the Amiens sector and other important engagements. The Argonne campaign was the severest, he says. "Very nearly all the officers I knew, associated and chummed with were either killed or wounded," said Major Bond. "I was in luck all the time excepting when I got gassed, rather more seriously than the preceding two times. But, comparatively, it was nothing."

"I saw little of any West Virginia friends after I landed in France. Once

Manager Bell, of the Fairmont Y. M. C. A. team, will endeavor to take the place on the schedule of Davis and Elkins College, which can not fill its engagement. Basket ball has been started late at this institution, and entertained to have this college appear here later in the season.

All plans have been completed for the Fairmont Y. M. C. A.-West Virginia University game at Morgantown this evening at 7 o'clock. It is expected that a large delegation of Fairmont rooters will accompany the team to Morgantown tonight. The locals will leave here on the 4:12 Monongahela Railway train and will board the 8:30 train out of Morgantown for Fairmont.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed, it swells and runs and is imperfectly closed, and the air is entirely closed. Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation is removed and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are cured by the use of Dr. J. C. Cheney's Catarrhal Deafness Cure. Dr. J. C. Cheney's Catarrhal Deafness Cure is a blood purifier and cleanses the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars to any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Dr. J. C. Cheney's Catarrhal Deafness Cure. All Druggists, etc. J. C. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

in Paris on a vacation I met two officers from the home state. We had a happy reunion. My comrades at the front were mostly from Kansas and Missouri. One of them was Capt. Henry Allen who was elected Governor of Kansas by a tremendous majority while on the battle front. The electorate of that State made no mistake. He is a fine fellow, and will make good as chief executive as he did as a soldier.

"Glad to get back home? The most welcome sight I ever saw in my life, or ever expect to see, was the Goddess of Liberty coming toward me out of the mist and fog, her upraised hand dropped to an angle as if to grasp the hand of every man on the ship and draw him to her in maternal welcome."

"Some declared that this miracle actually took place. What with the fog and the mist over the harbor and in our eyes and our hearts. Well, it may have happened. I would not want to argue against those of my comrades who are so certain that it did occur."

Congressman Stuart F. Reed was the orator at a great mass meeting held at Springfield, Mass., Sunday afternoon as a memorial to the late Col. Theodore Roosevelt. The meeting was held in a convention hall with a seating capacity of 6,000, but it proved too small to admit the great crowd which assembled.

Mr. Reed was invited to deliver the memorial address by long distance telephone by the representative of a citizen's organization in Springfield, which maintains a fund to bring the foremost orators and public men of the country to Springfield to address great Sunday afternoon audiences during the winter season. Speaker Champ Clark and Representative Fess delivered addresses there already this year, and it was upon the advice of both of them that Mr. Reed accepted the invitation. As he knew nothing about it, they explained to him that it was an honor for any man to receive such an invitation, that they had themselves considered it such and accepted. Mr. Reed had not the faintest idea how it was that the invitation came to him.

The Springfield engagement is one of the most important ones of the many speaking dates that Mr. Reed has filled. It is a very plain indication that the fame of the Third district congressman as an orator and lecturer is spreading further and further away from home. It is the third important engagement of the kind that Mr. Reed has had since the middle of November. He was the principal speaker and guest of the Chamber of Commerce of Washington at its first formal meeting of the year, and he delivered an address before the Southern Commercial Congress at its meeting in Baltimore last month. Whenever and wherever he goes to deliver an address, this gifted son of West Virginia never fails to pay high tribute to his native Commonwealth. He is regarded as one of the best field agents that the state can boast.

Application for a pension increase was filed with the Pension Commissioner by Congressman Woodyard for John S. Hall, of St. Marys.

William C. Plumb, a well known citizen of Parkersburg, is here seeking a transfer for his son, Kenneth R. Plumb, from Camp Sherman to a better equipped hospital, where his injured arm may be operated on and given the best medical attention. Young Plumb was injured in the Verdun sector. His right arm has been useless ever since.

An original pension for Mrs. Isabelle Cook, of Pine Knob, W. Va., has been applied for at the Pension Bureau by Senator Sutherland also an increase for Hugh A. Hankin, of Wheeling.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cooper, Jr., are guests of Congressman and Mrs. Edward Cooper at the Raleigh. They are still on their honeymoon, having been married New Year's Day. Mrs. Edward Cooper II, was Miss Virginia Lee Mitchell, of Christiansburg, Va. Her husband received his discharge from the Marines as a Christmas present. He was a sergeant stationed at Paris Island for a number of months, detailed as a drill master for the greater part of the time. Miss Smith, sister of Mrs. Edward Cooper, and little Miss Douglas Cooper are also members of the happy family gathering.

FIRE AT FOUNDRY.

The Central fire department was called to the Helmick Machine shops on the South side Saturday evening where a fire from an unknown cause was destroying the rear of the building. A passing yard engine crew discovered the blaze and notified the company and had it not been for this the building probably would have been entirely destroyed. As it was the flames had gained considerable headway and the rear wall of the structure was practically consumed. The Helmick fire company had the city water mains in use and with the assistance of the fire department succeeded in soon extinguishing the flames.

Miss Winnifred Murphy spent the week end with relatives in Gratton.

HIGH SCHOOL SHOWS UP WELL IN GAME

Parkersburg Wins of Course
But Score Was Tie at One Time.

Great excitement attended the Fairmont High-Parkersburg High basketball game on Saturday evening at the old Normal School building, when the visitors scalped the locals by the score of 30 to 20. The game was far more exciting and interesting than the score would indicate. At the end of the first half it was even Stephen, each five having 7 points to its credit. The showing made by the Fairmonters is regarded as very good considering the team that the Parkersburg youths have developed.

Fairmont High put in its final practice on Friday night and they entered the game in right fair trim. Parkersburgers arrived on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock and appeared to be in the pink of condition.

Flour work of both teams was regarded as being very classy. When it comes to marking up individual ability Hill and Knight proved to star for Fairmont. Wilson, the visitor's centre, and Neale, one of the Parkersburg guards, put up great games. Five hundred floor fans attended the game, which was a great drawing card, because of Parkersburg's excellent record as a basketball team. The line up was as follows:

Fairmont, 20. Parkersburg, 30.
Pos. Knight.....F..... Neale
Troxel.....F..... Funk
Hill.....C..... Wilson
Roman.....G..... Kelly
Brown.....G..... De Nuczia
Goals from field—Neale 5; Funk 2; Wilson 3; Knight 3; Hill 3.
Goals from foul—Neale, 10 out of 21; Hill, 8 out of 15.
Times of halves—20 minutes.
Score at end of first half, 7-7.
Referee—Stansberry, W. V. U.

Party At Catawba.

Mrs. Grace Pyles Saturday evening gave a party at her home in Catawba in honor of her son, John. The affair was largely attended and among those present were a number of Fairmont young people.
